MESSAGE

We at the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila Alumni Association, Inc. (PLMAA) share in the joyous celebration of the 44th founding anniversary of our alma mater, 18-19 June 2009. We also extend our warmest congratulations to, and thank the PLM Administration for the warm reception and participation, during the Alumni Homecoming last 25-28 February 2009. The many improvements and changes we have seen at PLM in recent months are significant and impressive; it reflects on the character of the current leadership and management of Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila.

Forty four years ago today, President Diosdado Macapagal signed into law Republic Act No. 4196 establishing the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila (PLM); the first university named in Pilipino; the country's first municipal university; and the first completely free university in the Philippines. PLM is the fruition of the hardwork, determination and vision of two of Manila's great leaders, Mayor Arsenio H. Lacson and "Gatpuno" Antonio J. Villegas.

From a humble beginning when it opened its doors to the first batch of students on 17 July 1967, the PLM has evolved today, as a premier and highly esteemed academic institution. The memories of these great leaders shall always be remembered.

We are forever grateful to the city government of Manila for the free college education we have received. To the faculty members who were part of our development, and the many staff members and employees who worked hard and dedicated their lives serving the PLM through the years, we honor you today, and extend our grateful appreciation and thank you. The PLM today is testament to your dedicated, honest service.

As we join the Administration, students, faculty and employees in this joyous occasion, the PLM alumni community extend its cooperation and support to its programs of providing quality education to the youth of the city of Manila. It is this sense of gratitude that we, PLM alumni commit to work for an enduring partnership with the PLM Administration, its students, employees and the community as a whole.

Maligayang bati sa Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila !
